

Dear Wilderness Adventure Camper,

Thanks for choosing to join us for an amazing week at IdRaHaJe! We are so excited to take you on a fun and intense week in the backcountry. We will spend the week on a five day backpacking trip out in the backcountry wilderness. You will be able to develop your skills in fire building, shelter construction, survival, and orienteering. We will teach you the skills necessary should you ever need to survive in the backcountry. All along the trail, you will learn how Jesus can illuminate your life!
