

Family Mountain Adventures Activity Guide

Archery: This activity introduces you to the sport of archery. You will learn how to properly handle a bow and arrow, and proper shooting technique, which will lead to successful shooting. The length of your package and group size will determine how many rounds of shooting will be included. The activity may end with a team challenge where you can put to practice your new skills and knowledge!