

Family Mountain Adventures

Packing List

As you and your family pack for the day, please take the following into consideration:

IdRaHaJe is located at an elevation of 8,700 feet. Due to the high altitude and the unpredictable Colorado weather, we would like you to be prepared for a variety of weather patterns. We recommend checking the weather for Bailey, CO before you arrive.

Depending on your package, you may be hiking to elevations above 8,700 feet. Some packages include hiking to as high as 14,000 feet. We ask that you take the elevation change into account as you pack.
