

Speaker Bio – Mike Kallandar

Mike's longstanding history with IdRaHaJe is notable. In the late 90's, Mike worked on summer staff in a variety of roles; he and his wife Karin even met at IdRaHaJe! His first official summer teaching was as an emergency guest speaker in 1999. Mike and his family now dedicate several weeks of each summer to IdRaHaJe teaching Wilderness Ridge campers and serving as our Missionary Teachers. Mike is best known for his passionate communication, memorable object lessons and his unwavering faith. He currently works full-time as a P.E. teacher for Jefferson County Public Schools and is very involved in his local church. He and his family are scheduled to teach Missions Week 4 and at Wilderness Ridge Week 5 for Summer 2020.
